TALK TO DR. RENEE

Dr. Renee Clauselle's (Psy.D.) goal is to encourage people to find balance and enjoy happy, healthy mental lives by destigmatizing psychology and therapy, and to bring issues out into the open.

As Founder and Head Psychologist of New York based Child and Family Psychology, providing mental health services in three locations and online. Dr. Renee's clear explanations, intelligence, sparkling personality and humor are making her the go-to expert for family and relationships as she is increasingly seen and quoted in the media.

As Founder and Director of School Mental Health at St. John's University. Dr. Clauselle's additional goals are Education, Autism Advocacy and Accessibility of Psychology Services. Dr. Clauselle shares information and resources with the public through her blogs, ebooks and newsletters, speaking engagements and appearances.

As a working mom to Jessica and Philip, a special needs child with autism, Dr. Renee is passionate about helping children and families find balance and healing.

Child & Family Psychologist

Child and Family Psychology is a company based on Long Island, New York that specializes in the behavioral and emotional needs of children of all ages. We conduct psychological/diagnostic evaluations, psychotherapy, neurofeedback and parent training. Our areas of specialty are: Attention Deficit Disorders, Autism Spectrum Disorders, Developmental Delays, Anxiety, Depression, School Problems, Learning Disabilities, School Phobia/Anxiety and more. All of our doctors are also certified in school psychology, which enables us to work with your child's school if we need to and only if it is your preference. Our doctors and child psychologists also serve as educational advocates to assist parents in understanding psychological reports and thus enabling them to fully participate in their child's CPSE or CSE meeting.
